Trans World Radio Kenya & Beacon of Hope become the first charter members of AfCAA.

Trans World Radio Kenya and Beacon of Hope have become the pioneer charter members of AfCAA after successfully getting accredited. Both non-profit Christian organizations are committed to maintain Christian ethics and accountability in their operations. The AfCAA seal of accreditation provides recognition of compliance to the Seven AfCAA Standards of stewardship and accountability.

Beacon of Hope is an organization serving the needs of vulnerable H.I.V positive orphans and individuals by giving them an opportunity to study technical programs and putting them through O-level education. Through the their desire to build a solid foundational culture that promotes accountability.

Trans World Radio Kenya is an international Media Organization that is keen on spreading the gospel through mass media. They are a Christian non-profit organization on a mission to minister to marginalized communities across the world. They too have taken responsibility and taken up the mandate to become accountable to God and enhance public trust in their organization.

The first ten Christ-centered institutions to become members of AfCAA in every African Country will get the opportunity to be charter members of AfCAA. If you would like to become one please make a commitment to be accountable in the Body of Christ and become a member of AfCAA, please contact us via info@afcaa.org for more inquiries.

AfCAA establishes Headquarter office in Nairobi, Kenya.

The African Council of Accountability and Accreditation has found a new home. Beginning February 2017, the organization moved into its new offices at The Navigators, on Kindaruma Road just off Ngong highway in Nairobi, Kenya. The office is the official Headquarters for AfCAA.

AfCAA extends a warm welcome to all who need more information about the role AfCAA is playing to enhance accountability in the Body of Christ in Africa.

Join us for our quarterly Financial Management & Disclosure Seminar.

AfCAA will hold its quarterly seminar themed financial management and disclosure on the 29th of September 2017 at The Navigator's building along Kindaruma Rd. from 8am to 4pm. The lead facilitator will be Sam Kiraka, a tax and audit expert supported by K.R.A officials who will train on tax compliance.

This will be a ripe opportunity for financial management stakeholders to come and learn more on tax compliance principles, financial planning strategies and network with like-minded individuals. AfCAA is passionate about resource sharing in the body of Christ to enhance accountability.

Come and meet other professionals who are passionately serving God in the area of finance. This is a platform that will enable all participants to better understand the role AfCAA is playing to enhance public trust in Christ-centered institutions and organizations.

Charges are Ksh. 6000 for non-members and for members, the charges are covered by member benefits. For more information on how you can participate in this Seminar, Contact info@afcaa.org or call 0797 663 787.
